MAYOR BAIRD TALKS.

Every Statement Smacks the Bullet in the Face.

His term of office began January, 1898. The annual licenses having been collected and paid over showed a balance in the treasury of $9,653.37. Against this were outstanding claims as follows:

In favor of Mrs. Addie Jephson	$2,025.41
Judgment of Mrs. Bridget Tully	545.10
Compromise claim of C. G. Thompson and Thos. C. Welch	1,042.82
Repairing of fire engines	2,509.60
New hose purchased	800.00
Outstanding vouchers	1,838.96
Total	$8,761.89

This shows a difference between assets and liabilities of $901.48, instead of the enormous sum of nearly $10,000.

Mr. Baird also informs the taxpayers that the tax books for the year 1901 are in the hands of the collector and when the taxes of 1901 and the licenses for 1902 have been paid in, all outstanding vouchers will be paid and there will be a balance in the treasury of about $2,500. Is not this a better showing than that of 1898?

This in face of the fact that four years prior to 1898 the tax rate was 65 3-4 cents and our average has been 53 1-4 cents; that the city has kept up between 4 and 5 miles of street which was formerly cared for by turnpike companies. During the period of my office we have had to contend against the spread of small pox brought here by a negro from Richmond. This cost was $1,855.85. The construction of two iron bridges, one over Hinkston on the Spencer pike, another over same creek on Queen street and a steel covering for the fire cistern cost the city $845.

Could the people of Mt. Sterling hope for a better showing than this?

The city books are open for inspection of all interested citizens.

Wild Dash for Freedom.

George Parker, alias "Butch Cassidy," one of the most desperate characters in the West, who is believed to have been implicated in the robbery of the Great Northern express train near Wagner, Mont., last June, fought his way clear of two city detectives in Nashville Sunday and after a thrilling chase, made his escape. In his race for liberty he utilized a two horse wag on team, a horse and buggy and a riding horse, all forcibly taken, while two dead bloodhounds marked the first portion of his trail. The man threw away a wallet containing $1,040 in ten and twenty-dollar bills of the Montana Bank.

A Fine Time.

On Sunday a jolly crowd from Levee, Camargo, Jeffersonville and Howard's Mill went to Peele Oak chestnut hunting. The party consisted of the following: Mrs. Scottie Welsh, Mrs. Ida Knox, Misses Mary and Lizzie Bedford, Lillian Ramsey and Mary Greenwade; Messrs. Lewis Knox, Miller Anderson, Arthur Barnes, Marshall Myers, Mat Knox, Walter Wright, John McCormick and Will Reed. An elegant dinner consisting of all the good things of the season was spread on the ground.

Mr editor of The advocate.

I hope you will not think it imprudent of me for calling on you so often for information in regard to your city movements along the pyre shops line, mee and sal that is my better half's name have bin visitating in mt. sterling pretty frequently in the last two weeks and there is another fellow trying to beet me out of sal, but i don't think he will ever be able to do it be case sal says her love for mee is as square as a pistol and I believe its so to. still you know when a fello is dead struck on a walking valentine he is mighty apt to become a little scatterin in his minde sum time if his love is all right fur his gal: eny way i draped in the postoffice as i noticed the people, bofe black and white going in and comin out with letters and i noticed tha only had one cent stamps on them, so that put me to studying. i sed to myself i will go in and se, maybe tha mite be something fur me or sal, so i went in and knocked at the door and inquire if thare wer eny letter for mr or mrs coon-trotter, and the postmaster looked at mee pety clost then handed out two or thre letters, but sed nothing but kep eyeing mee al' the time. sal noticed it and she sed she beleaved tha think maybe wee are the chaps that waltzed up on the exchange banks eye brow for a few of the boys, eny way we opened the letters hopen to hear from from sum kinsman or frinde and beholde tha were nothing but little baging tickets from the so-called good citison of the city. Tha did not thare individual names for fear tha mite come short if tha wer wayed up separately. tha want us to take the whole load as tha fixed it, but i don't like to charge a battery i kno nothing a bout. i have bin hurt be fore by lisning to those little song and dances on paper. it won't do to go to fast with out looking ahead som. i got caught a fue days ago by not leting wel a lone. i contracted with a fello for a barrel of good sound white corn to feed my rats on thure the winter and when it come i payed him fur it and heleft so i began to use it and getting down about the middle i discovered he had mixed in a lot of yaller corne and fuled me by putting the white corne on top, my rats wont eat yallar corne under no suremstances so i dont drop a good thing on till you kno you can git a better one. dont let that "C C" pull the wool over youre eyes: That same old gag is tryed to be worked every election: if you you are a gimecrat and believe in jamocratic princibles don't mix colors but stick square up for the nominees of the democratic party the city affairs is all right the salaries is where the trouble comes tho if the C C will thro on the proper amount of light it might cut a figer and postpone the salt rive excursion, let er go at that.
